SAFE IN NEXT ASSEMBLY

burg. Senator Watkins was defeated in the Chesterfield District by Dr. T. H. Henning.

CITIZENS' PARTY WINS

SWEEPING VICTORY

The Citizens' party had a sweeping victory in Norfolk City, nominating E. C. Matthews for the Senate and both its candidates for the House of Delegates. W. P. Cousin and L. B. Cox.

Walter Tansil Oliver, of Fairfax, who was the leader of the wet forces in the House of Delegates, was defeated for re-election by Franklin Williams, Jr. O. L. Stearnes, of Roanoke County, another active member of the present House, lost every precinct in the county but one to J. Sinclair Brown.

George L. Browning, a leading candidate for Speaker, is probably the winner in Orange County over Charles C. Taliaferro, Sr.

Henry Seattle won easily over C. W. Throckmorton in Chesterfield.

DECLARED NOMINEES

IN NINETEEN DISTRICTS

In nineteen of the thirty-nine Senatorial districts the Democratic candidates had no opposition for the nomination, and have been declared the nominees. In the remaining twenty districts, the Citizens' party candidates were declared the nominees.

The new men, who are likely to come to the Senate without serious opposition if any at all, are Harry Flood Byrd, of Winchester, a son of Richard Evelyn Byrd, former Speaker of the House of Delegates in the Tenth District; Walter E. Addison, a prominent newspaper editor of Lynchburg, in the Twentieth; James T. Lane, in the Halifax District; and George S. Conrad, in the Rockingham District. Senator John Paul, Republican, will not be a candidate for re-election in the Rockingham contest, and Conrad is expected to win over the Republican nominee, who has not been named.

The present Senators who have been renominated by the Democrats are: W. L. Andrews, Roanoke, Fourth District; W. H. Landes, Ninth; C. O'Connor, Giles, Thirteenth; R. Ewell, Thornton, Fourteenth; Nat. B. Early, Jr., Seventeenth; Sands Gayle, Eighteenth; W. A. Garrett, Twenty-third; George T. Rison, Twenty-fourth; P. H. Drewry, Twenty-ninth; J. E. West, Thirtieth; Charles L. Gravatt, Thirty-second; C. Harding Walker, Thirty-fourth; Saxon W. Holt, Thirty-sixth; G. Walter Mapp, Thirty-seventh; John R. Saunders, Thirty-ninth.

Senator J. Powell Royall, Republican, in the Third District, may have no Democratic opposition. In the Fifth District, S. S. Simmerman, before the Democratic convention, called for August 14.

In four Senatorial districts—the First, Second, Sixth and Twenty-sixth Districts—no nominations have been made by either party.

SENATOR RINEHART

APPARENTLY RE-ELECTED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CLIFTON, ROBERT, A. August 3.—Incomplete returns from the Seventh Senatorial District indicate the re-election of Senator W. A. Rinehart over William R. Allen, of Buchanan. Rinehart carried Alleghany, Bath and Giles Counties, and this city, with Botetourt in doubt. Rinehart's majorities are: Clifton Forge, 75; Craig, 65, and about 100 in Alleghany. His majority in the district will reach 300.

Rinehart, in the lead over Allen, will require the official vote to decide the contest. Goodwin carried Clifton Forge by 225, while Rinehart carried 225 in Covington. Several precincts are missing from the total vote and cannot be heard from to-night. The friends of McCaleb and Goodwin are both claiming victory.

AUBREY STRODE NOMINATED

OVER SENATOR MASSIE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., August 3.—Scattering returns from Amherst and Nelson Counties, which constitute the Nineteenth Senatorial District indicate the nomination of Aubrey E. Strode to the State Senate over Bland Massie, the incumbent. Strode's victory is largely due to the "wet" and "dry" phase of the fight, and he will work for the program of the Anti-Saloon League. His nomination is equivalent to election. Returns from the precincts in Nelson, Massie's county, give him twenty-four majority, while six in Amherst, Strode's county, give him a lead of 358. A hard rain throughout the afternoon paralyzed the county telephones and more complete returns are not available to-night. No election was held in Lynchburg.

BARHAM GOES TO SENATE

OVER A. R. HOBBS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., August 3.—T. B. Wright was to-day elected representative to the House of Delegates from Isle of Wight County by a majority of 160 votes over his opponent, L. L. Velhines. 506 votes were cast for Wright, 355 for Velhines. J. T. Davis was elected commissioner of revenue from Isle of Wight County by about 160 majority over the incumbent, J. Chapman. 465 votes were cast for Davis, 378 for Chapman. In Windsor District, Lorenzo Bailey lost by a small majority over J. Bab, for whom 120 votes were cast with one precinct missing.

GREENSVILLE COUNTY

GIVES BARHAM MAJORITY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EMPORIA, VA., August 3.—Greensville County gives Barham 320; Hobbs, 215, for the Senate; Cato, 336; Purdy, 197, for the House. Saunders defeated Sheriff Lee by 8 votes. Taylor won for Commonwealth's attorney over Powell and Palmer, by 25. Squire was re-elected commissioner of the revenue over Gillette, by 142. Richardson, for treasurer, had no opposition.

DOWNING IS IN LEAD

OVER TWO OPPONENTS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LURAY, VA., August 3.—To-day's primary election in this district, composed of Page, Warren and Clarke Counties, passed off without special incident. For the Senate there were three candidates, Blackburn Smith, the incumbent; H. H. Downing, and S. G. Waller. Downing, who was in this district late in the day kept many away from the polls, and has delayed the returns in coming in.

Colonel R. F. Leedy, for the House, from Page and Rappahannock, had no opposition.

Clarke Goes for Smith.

BERRYVILLE, VA., August 3.—The full vote of Clarke County for the House of Delegates is: Gilpin, 251; Zelgaby, 233; Boyer, 137. Senator Smith, 328; Waller, 251; Downing, 226.

Downing Wins P. Warren.

FRONT ROYAL, VA., August 3.—Twelve out of thirteen precincts in Warren County give H. H. Downing 275 majority over S. J. Gardner Waller, for State Senator; Smith, vote very light; Kenneth N. Gilpin, for House of Delegates, gets a majority of 299.

SENATOR R. CLYDE BOWERS

CARRIES HIS DISTRICT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CULPEPER, VA., August 3.—The hotly contested fight for the nomination for the Senate was decided in the Democratic primary held here to-day, when Senator R. Clyde Bowers carried the Counties of Culpeper, Madison and Orange by a majority of 125 to 75 votes. Colonel S. M. Newhouse had a majority of ninety-six in Rappahannock. Representative Harry Smith was renominated without opposition.

EUGENE OLD DEFEATED

IN CAMPBELL COUNTY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., August 3.—Returns from Campbell County in eighteen out of twenty-one precincts show E. A. Russell has defeated Eugene Old, a former member of the House, by an overwhelming majority. Russell will vote "dry" if elected over stiff Socialist opposition. A. H. Light, incumbent, defeated W. M. Murrell, a former incumbent, for Commonwealth's attorney.

PRINCESS ANNE, COURT HOUSE, VA., August 3.—A. L. Baum received the Democratic nomination for the House of Delegates in to-day's Democratic primary.
